A long time ago, as all Irish children know, tiny fairies created some magical blueberries. When eaten by tiny animals, they are magically able to speak to the tiny fairies. You must be tiny to hear them speak. It is said that children can hear them too! So look for the magical blueberry patches and you just might get to hear their stories too! Afraid of School is a story about a little hermit crab named Happy. Happy's friend, Bubbles is afraid to start school. But Happy tells him that school is fun. Go on an adventure with Happy as she describes what it is like to go to school. Written by a teacher, this story takes your child to school with Happy and Bubbles. The story helps children to become familiar with some of the things that will happen at school. It is also written in a silly rhyming style that helps children to recognize site words. The story ends with Happy and Bubbles safely returning home on the school bus ready to tell Mommy about their day. All young children will enjoy Afraid of School, even if they already go to school.
