Excerpt: . . . sportsthat it is not necessary to dwell upon the practical value of this present volume. Of especial interest and importance are the chapters devoted to the construction of small boats, in which he gives minute details for everything which goes into the making and the fitting of a canoe or cat-rig. Although an Englishman, the author is a sincere admirer of the skill and ingenuity of the American boatbuilder, and is glad to give due credit to the advantages of the American type of yacht. The amateur sailor--no matter how inexperienced he may be--will find Mr. Hickss instructions always within his comprehension, and his book a ready guide when perplexed by nautical difiiculties. New York: Forest and Stream Publishing Co. i2mo, 3. 5o. OURSELVES AND OUR NEIGHBORS. By Louise Chandler Moulton. These short chats on social topics are especially intended for young men and women who are thinking of taking, or who have taken. partners for life; and in them are to be found many hints and suggestions for the regulation of conduct, both in the home circle and in society, the recollection and observance of which would add much to the happiness of married life. A wide knowledge of human nature, based upon acute observation and keen judgment, makes these little papers very readable; to which admirable quality is added an easy and attractive literary style.
