Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.How does a backwoods, lowly enlisted mechanic become a WWII, P-51, ace fighter pilot ? I wrote Tippy as a tribute to a Master Gunnery Sergeant that I had the pleasure and honor to have served with while in the Marines. I remember as a young Marine transferring home from overseas. I had received orders to report to Hams-37, a DC-3 (C-47-military distinction) transport squadron at El Toro Air Base. I was awaiting my discharge from my enlistment. This is where I met Master Gunnery Sergeant, Charles Walker Tippie. Man was he a salty old marine. A fair guy, but let s just say, seasoned. I flew a few times as his mechanic, crew chief. Boy, did he have some stories. Some may have been Fairy Tales, some the God s Honest Truth. You can never tell with the Marines. I was told early on in my Marine career, there are only two types of fairy tales told in the Corps; one begins with, Once upon a time. the other, This is no Shite! Whatever the truth may have been, I wrote Tippy as a tribute, as I imagined this Flying Marine Sergeant may have been in WWII. None of my characters in the book exist in real life. They are composites of the REAL HEROS, the men who flew into battle everyday! They crammed there bodies into tiny aircraft, and then hurled themselves across the skies, to protect America. Let me just tell you here and now. War sucks! It s much better to Pass the bread, than the Ammo! But, my lord, you have got to hand it to these souls! This is a personal Thank-You...
